

SUMMER ARTS CAMP 2010

Multi Arts Camp

Entering Grades K-4

Morse School (location to be confirmed)

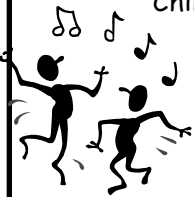

Mondays-Thursdays from 9am-noon

July 12-15, July 19-22, July 26-29 * Sign up for 1, 2 or 3 weeks

Campers will rotate through 3-4 different arts activities each day. There will be weekly art projects and a mix of music, African drumming, dance and creative movement or theater games.

Children will be actively engaged each day.

Activities are led by a professional teaching artist. Campers will be grouped by age. High school counselors accompany each group to all activities. Thursdays are special theme day, such as Pajama Day or Crazy Hair Day. The fun never stops!

$110/week for local residents or $300 for all 3 weeks.

$125/week non-Tarrytown/Sleepy Hollow residents or $350 for all 3 weeks.

Scholarships available for school district families.

OPEN CALL DRAMA CAMP

Monday-Friday June 28-July 2

9:30am-2:30pm, $155

Entering Grades 4-6

Washington Irving School Auditorium (air conditioned!) - location to be confirmed

Peter Royston, director of school-based theater residencies as well as after school theater productions at many area schools, will lead young actors in a program filled with theater games and character exploration, while at the same time preparing for a small performance. Learn the basics of voice and movement, rehearsal and memorization, improvisation and character development. High energy theater games will keep campers happily engaged as they learn stage techniques and work together to create a culminating performance at the end of the week.

Sing! * Dance! * Paint! * Laugh! * Act! * Improvise! * Try New Things! * Make Friends! * Create * Have Fun!
