

The Horseman

Summer Club

"Keeping our heads on straight over the summer break"

Welcome to the club!

To prevent us from losing our heads over the summer, all club members will:

- keep track of our daily reading on the attached reading log
- complete the summer activities below and hand them in to the club leaders in one of 3 ways:
 - In person: drop them off at your school office
 - By Mail: you can mail them to the club leaders:
 - Horseman Summer Club
TUFSD
200 North Broadway
Sleepy Hollow, NY 10591
 - By e-mail: you can e-mail your work to the club leaders at horsemanclub@tufsd.org
- meet up at the Warner Library on Thursdays (July 8 through August 19) at 1:15 PM for the weekly read-aloud
- celebrate our head-full summer in September with a special Club Celebration, complete with awards and prizes!

Join teachers, principals and administrators from your school on Thursdays at the Warner Public Library for

Tarrytown Teachers Telling Tales

Thursdays

1:15 – 1:45

July 8 – August 19

Warner Public Library

Educators from the Tarrytown School District will conduct a read aloud of one of their favorite books every Thursday from July 8 to August 19 from 1:15 – 1:45 PM. Come and enjoy a Tarrytown teacher telling a tale – and bring your Summer Activity Packet and stay afterwards for help in finishing that week's activity, or for the library's weekly craft table, and browse the shelves to borrow a book to add to your summer reading log. Escape the heat of the summer for a cool time in your air-conditioned public library.

The Warner Library is located at 121 North Broadway at Wildey Street (near the C-Town). Residents of Tarrytown, Sleepy Hollow, nonresidents of Westchester County who work or go to school in Tarrytown or Sleepy Hollow, may register for a free library card. Proof of your current address is required. Children may register for library cards in the Children's Room. Warner Library policy states that children under the age of 8 must be accompanied by an adult or responsible teen 15 years or older while in the library. Special thanks to the staff of the Children's Room at the Warner Public Library and the teacher volunteers of the Teachers' Association of the Tarrytowns for making this program possible.

Únase a maestros, directores y administradores de su escuela los jueves en la
Biblioteca Warner Public Library para

Maestros De Tarrytown

Relatando Cuentos

Jueves

1:15pm - 1:45pm

8 De Julio - 19 De Agosto

La Biblioteca Warner Public Library

Los educadores del Distrito Escolar de Tarrytown dirigirán una lectura en voz alta de uno de sus libros favoritos cada jueves comenzando el día 8 de julio al 19 de agosto de 1:15pm - 1:45pm. Venga y disfrute con un maestro de Tarrytown al escuchar el relato de un cuento - luego quédese para ayuda en terminar tu Paquete de Actividades del Verano, o participar en la mesa de manualidades artesanales de la biblioteca, y para explorar los estantes de libros que usted podrá pedir prestado para sumarlo a su lectura veraniega. Escape el calor del verano y pase un tiempo fresco en el aire acondicionado de su biblioteca pública.

El Warner Library esta localizado en el 121 North Broadway en Wildey Street (cerca de C-Town). Los residentes de Tarrytown, Sleepy Hollow, no residentes del Condado de Westchester que laboran o van a la escuela en Tarrytown o Sleepy Hollow, pueden registrarse para adquirir un carnet gratis de la biblioteca. Se precisa prueba de su domicilio. Los niños pueden registrarse para adquirir su carnet de la biblioteca en el Cuarto De Los Niños. La política de la biblioteca declara que los niños bajo la edad de 8 años deben estar acompañadas por un adulto o adolescente responsable mayor de 15 años mientras esta en la biblioteca. Les agradecemos especialmente al cuerpo administrativo del Cuarto De Los Niños en el Warner Public Library y los maestros voluntarios de la Asociación de Maestros de los Tarrytowns por hacer posible este programa.

Name _____

Tarrytown Union Free School District Summer Reading Log – Summer 2009

Keep track of all of your summer reading on this reading log. Run out of room? Use another sheet of paper! Return this log and your summer packet to your new teacher to be eligible for the summer work party and awards and prizes!

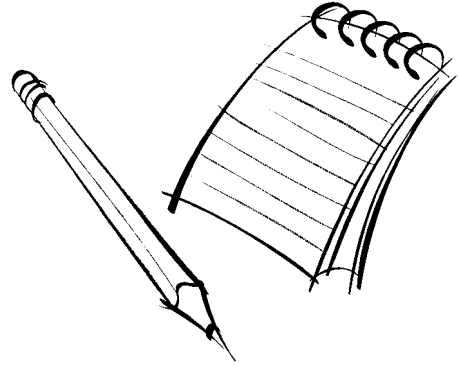

Date	Title	Author	# minutes read	Page Numbers read	Parent initials
Example	Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing	Judy Blume	25 mins.	41-66	K.L.
	5 books?! Great job! Keep reading!
	10 books?! Fantastic! Don't stop now!!
	14 books?! Keep going—flip the page!

	15 books?! Hooray! Keep on reading!
	20 books?! Excellent!
	25 books?! You're amazing! Keep going!
	Got this far and you want to read even more? Keep on reading and use another sheet of paper! Wow!

Club Activity #2

Due July 23

On the next page, write about a small moment from your summer vacation so far. Think of one moment that was especially fun, exciting, scary, or sad. Write as much as you can about that special summer moment. Draw a picture to go with your story if you choose.

Club Activity #3

Due August 6

Pick one of your favorite books that you've read so far this summer. Pretend you can take a picture of the best part of that book: what would the picture look like? On the next page, draw what that picture might look like, and write about that part of the book on the lines underneath.

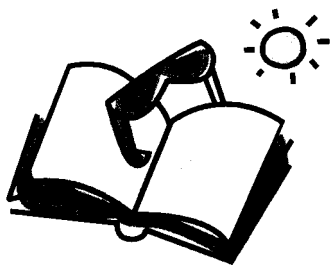

Club Activity #4

Due August 20

Review your summer book log, and choose the book you liked the most. Make a poster to advertise your book and convince other students to read that book.

Make sure you include:

- the title and author
- a paragraph summary of the book in your own words
- a paragraph about why you think other students might like to read that book, too.
- You may want to use construction paper or poster board, and include pictures.

Club Activity #5

Due the first day of school

On the next page, write about another small moment from your summer vacation. Think of another moment that was especially fun, exciting, scary, or sad. Write as much as you can about that special summer moment. Draw a picture to go with your story if you choose.

